

We Need You:
Let President Bush Know What HIV/AIDS Patients Really Need
No waiting lists for AIDS drugs in our United States!

SAVE ADAP is bringing the fight for HIV/AIDS drugs to President Bush's back door and we need you to let him know that we need $303 million more in order to provide thousands of HIV+ Americans the healthcare they deserve. Come and join us on August 25, 2005 at 11:30 am for the SAVE ADAP Summit at Crawford, Texas to discuss the current crisis facing Americans with HIV/AIDS. We will let the Bush Administration know that we are his citizens and he can no longer ignore our cries for HIV/AIDS treatment. We are the United States; we can do better!

The program will begin at 11:30 am on Thursday, August 25th at the Old Amsler Building in down town Crawford, located at the corner of Lone Star Ave. and Ave. G with a working lunch provided by SAVE ADAP, to be followed from 1-4 by a town hall meeting of people affected by HIV/AIDS and the ADAP (AIDS Drug Assistance Program) crisis to discuss what their needs are and what our government must do to meet them.
